BREAKING POINT

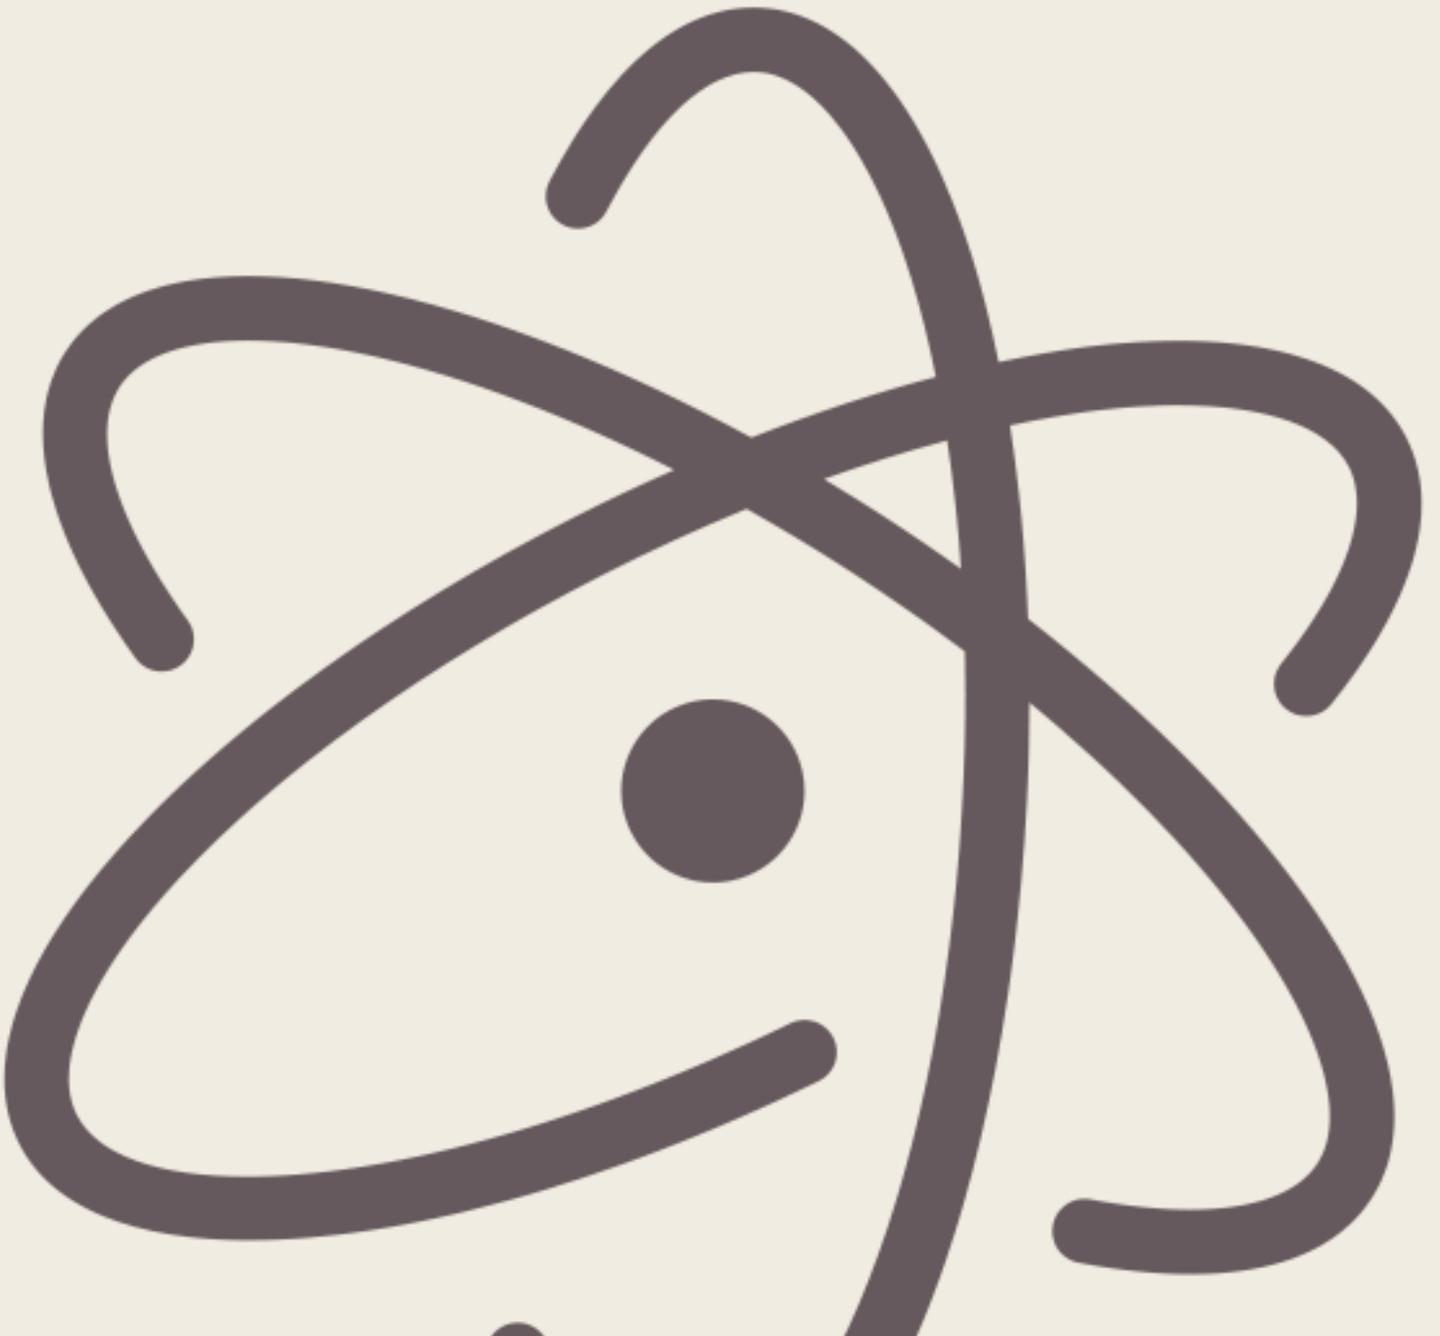

The image is a reproduction of a painting, likely by Vincent van Gogh, depicting a man in a blue suit sitting in a wooden chair. The man is looking down, and his hands are clasped in his lap. The background is a simple, textured wall, and the floor is made of wooden planks. Overlaid on the painting is the text "THE UNIVERSE KNOWS YOUR BREAKING POINT" in a bold, white, sans-serif font, arranged in five lines.
